LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "bait" free any more than a merchant can give his customer free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

HECHINGER & CO.'S

FALL STYLES

of Handsome
New Cuts!

Weavers' wits were never more versatile in producing attractive loom effects. Skill in wholesale tailoring has made marvelous progress in recent years. No better evidence is needed than a critical inspection of ready-to-wear clothing made for them. There is a nicety of detail, a carefulness of finish, a symmetry of cut that denotes master minds and master hands. This not only has reference to their clothing, but also to their other different departments. Nowhere will you see so handsome a display of gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, fine shirts, Hats, Collars and Ties as Hechinger & Co. show.

Have You Looked at Their Stock of Smith
& Stoughton

SHOES?

Recognizing the needs of their patrons, Hechinger & Co. arranged with Messrs. Smith & Stoughton, one of the most prominent manufacturers of fine Men's Shoes in the country, to sell their goods. See their window display of them and you will not wonder that although but thirty days elapsed since the first shipment arrived they are already doing the Men's Fine Shoe business of the town.

The funeral of Mr. Oscar M. Calvert took place yesterday afternoon from the Lewisburg Baptist Church. Mr. Calvert died suddenly of heart disease at his home near Lewisburg Saturday, aged 55 years. He was a most respected citizen, and leaves one daughter, Mrs. Ben Marshall.

Grand Representative William H. Cox, Allan D. Cole, Byron Rudy, Will R. Smith, George H. Frank and Joseph H. Dodson of DeKalb Lodge, and W. E. Seale, A. N. Huff and J. C. Rains of Ringgold Lodge have all gone to represent Maysville at the Oddfellows Grand Lodge meeting at Owensboro.

Elsewhere will be found the announcement of Mr. W. C. Sadler for the office of Mayor. Mr. Sadler is too well known to need any introduction to the people of Maysville. He has been City Treasurer, and is now a member of the Board of Education. His satisfactory administration of former trusts is guarantee that if chosen he will discharge his new duties with becoming dignity and signal ability.

What.

An experienced What Teacher would like to visit Maysville once a week and give lessons to a class of twelve or more. Terms reasonable. For further information call Wednesday, October 13th, from 2 to 6, at the residence of Mrs. Charles B. Poynter, 312 Market street.

WON'T SETTLE.

Insurance Companies Contest the Policies of the Late J. J. Shackelford.

The late James J. Shackelford had $10,000 life insurance, payable $4,000 to his widow, $4,000 to his daughter and $2,000 to his son.

The insurance was in two policies of $5,000 each—one in the Provident Savings Society and one in the Safety Fund Department of the Hartford Life and Annuity Company, written in 1892 and 1894 respectively.

The Hartford Company has employed local attorneys and will resist payment on the ground of fraud and misrepresentation, and the other may follow suit.

A short time before taking out this insurance Mr. Shackelford was defendant in a case, in which the defense was the existence of disease.

Mrs. Burrows was 65 years of age, and was a most noble Christian woman.

Besides a large circle of friends to whom her death will be a loss, Mrs. Burrows leaves two daughters, Mrs. Ed. Flowers of Covington and Miss Sallie Burrows of this city, and three grand-children.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, services conducted by Rev. Dr. John S. Hays of the First Presbyterian Church, assisted by Rev. J. S. Sims of the M. E. Church, South.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS.

District Convention at Flemingsburg One of the Best Ever Held.

The seventh annual convention of the Christian Endeavor Societies of District No. 2, made up of the counties of Mason, Lewis, Fleming, Robertson and Bracken, was held at the Christian Church in Flemingsburg Friday, Saturday and Sunday of last week.

The meeting was the best ever held in the district, about twenty-five delegates being present, and the good people of Flemingsburg did everything in their power to make the occasion a pleasant one.

Mr. H. C. Curran had charge of the convention until Saturday evening, when new officers were chosen for the next term.

Following are those elected: President—John B. Orr, Jr., Maysville. Vice-President—Hon. John P. McCarty, Flemingsburg.

Secretary—Miss Kate Straube—Augusta.

Treasurer—Miss Anna Myall, Maysville.

To this District three counties were added—Boyd, Carter and Greenup.

Mr. Hugh S. Young and Miss Laura Edith Patterson, both Delegates to the Convention from Brookville, were married at the residence of Mrs. E. Belt at 6:30 p. m. Saturday, the Rev. W. S. Willis of Flemingsburg officiating. Mr. Young is Editor of The Brookville Review, while his bride is one of Bracken's charming young ladies.

MEMORABLE OCCASION.

Semi-Centennial Celebration, With Sermon by a Pastor of Long Ago.

Half a century yesterday since the M. E. Church was built in this city, and he who presided to the congregation yesterday had been the Pastor of the fathers and mothers forty-four years ago.

In honor of the event an all-day service was held, embracing Sabbath-school, Sermons, Platform Meeting, and Epworth League.

The morning sermon was by the Rev. S. D. Clayton of Dayton, O., who was Pastor of this Church in 1852-3, being then 30 years of age.

His theme was the "Needs of the Church," and among other wants he enumerated more spiritual singing, an educated Ministry, comfortable houses of worship with a hearty welcome to the poorest man or woman—but, above all else, the outpouring of the Holy Ghost was the great need.

Dr. Clayton is an earnest speaker, and at the close of his sermon he referred in tender and affectionate terms to his former association with the Church here.

The Platform Meeting, held in the afternoon, was presided over by Judge Hutchins, whose father was one of the pioneers of the society in this city.

The Epworth League at 6 o'clock in the evening was led by Mr. I. M. Lane.

Dr. Clayton will remain in the city a day or two, and this evening he will deliver an address at the Church, to which everybody is cordially invited.

Seats free, and all welcome.

Wedding Presents.

We are now on the threshold of the great wedding season. It is now that almost daily our attention is called by a dainty invitation to the fact that some of our friends are to be married. Each invitation means a present. Have you put your thoughts on the subject? If not, follow us a few minutes. There are in our store hundreds of articles absolutely correct for wedding presents and with prices ranging from one dollar or so up to hundreds of dollars. As thought directs us let us suggest Watches, Silverware, Clocks, Onyx Tables, Lamps, Cut Glass, Tricabrac, Carving Sets, Pearl Handle Knives, Silver Toilet Sets, Bronzes, Spoons, Forks, Berry Dishes, Game Sets, &c. Ice Cream Sets.

From the great assembly here of handsome articles, suitable for wedding presents, you'll be able to select just the article you have in mind.

BALLENGER, Jeweler.

Mayor Blitt of Newport, who married Miss Louise Miller in this city October 11th, 1870, will this evening celebrate his twenty-seventh anniversary.

The loss of Mr. Stephen D. Gardner, whose residence and barn near Rectortown were destroyed by fire Friday night is placed at $2,500, with insurance amounting to $1,800.

The funeral of the late Cornelius Archdeacon occurred from St. Patrick's Church this morning, attended by members of the Neptune Fire Company, with which he had long been connected. The interment was at Washington, Mr. Archdeacon was a native of Kanturk, County Cork, Ireland, 65 years old, and came to Maysville 45 years ago. His wife, two daughters, —Miss Mamie Archdeacon and Mrs. Ed. Breen,—and three sons,—John, William and Timothy, survive him.

GETS ANOTHER CHANCE.

The Court of Appeals interposes in the Case of John D. Young.

The Court of Appeals has reversed the case of John D. Young, Jr., of Owingsville, sentenced to the Penitentiary for eighteen years for the murder of Pliny Fassett.

John D. Young is a son of ex-Congressman John D. Young.

Fassett was his cousin, and the circumstances of the killing are still fresh in the minds of LEDGER readers.

A new trial is ordered on account of error in the Court refusing to admit certain testimony.

KILLING AT CARLISLE.

One Man Fatally Shot, and Another's Head Crushed With a Hammer.

There was serious trouble at Carlisle Saturday afternoon.

Asa Stone and Ben Young, farmers, living near the city, engaged in a fight at Myers's blacksmith shop.

Stone was shot through the left breast and Young's skull was crushed with a hammer.

Young is unconscious, and his death is momentarily expected.

Stone's wound is not necessarily fatal. Young said that Stone had ruined his home, and was seeking revenge.

Stone is under arrest.

WHOOPI! WHOOPI!

Who Now Will Say That Kentucky Isn't Getting Out of the Woods?

The historic but antiquated wood fire places in the Statehouse at Frankfort are to be supplanted by a furnace, which is to be used in heating the building.

Mrs. Emma Crowell, State Librarian, let the contract for the furnaces for $800.

The Statehouse—Haven are the mark—of Kentucky is one of the few in the country where wood has been used for fires in the legislative hall, this being necessitated by the old-fashioned fireplaces in common use fifty years ago.

Nashville was selected as the next meeting place of the Mississippi Valley Medical Association.

Mrs. Shipp, wife of Midway's ex-Bank Cashier, sentenced to the penitentiary for two years for embezzlement, is at Frankfort with friends to sue with the Governor for the pardon of her husband, the Court of Appeals having taken its last step in the matter.

Dollar Wheat.

Always—if treated with pure Blue Stone. Chenoweth, the Druggist, sells it.

A few weeks ago the editor was taken with a very severe cold that caused him to be in a most miserable condition. It was undoubtedly a bad case of laryngitis, and recognizing it as dangerous he took immediate steps to bring about a speedy cure.

From the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the many good recommendations included therein, we conclude to make a first trial of the medicine. To say that it was satisfactory in its results, is putting it very mildly, indeed. It acted like magic and the result was a speedy and permanent cure.

We have no hesitancy in recommending this excellent Cough Remedy to anyone afflicted with a cough or cold in any form.

Soft cotton-faced held together by the characteristic spongy back and smuggled in the long nap are the richest, softest color plays of the season. No need to say what the stuff is good for—wrappers, saques, skirts and children's wear.

D. HUNT & SON.

Has Mr. BRYAN given up his Mexican trip? Nobody seems to want him in the state campaigns now in progress. He can go if he wants to.

The silver envoys who went to Japan to see why silver was demonetized don't seem to be in any hurry to report. Time is passing, gentlemen.

Even the Tammany Democrats have snubbed Mr. BRYAN. He wrote them urging that they should put silver into their platform and they promptly responded by keeping it out.

Nobody has been heard to blot for the past two months that WILLIAM MCKINLEY made any mistake last fall when he remarked that he thought it better to open the mills to American labor than the Mints to the world's silver.

SENATOR FORAKER denounces as absolutely false the published statements that he had cancelled his Ohio campaign appointments. He says he is in the fight from start to finish, and that the Republicans will elect their Senatorial candidate and entire state ticket by a big majority.

The earnings of the Dingley Law in the second half of August were slightly in excess of $9,000,000; those of the first half of September were over $10,000,000, and those of the last half of September were in excess of $11,000,000, showing a steady and gratifying increase in income under it.

EDITOR McLENNAN's "withdrawal" from the Senatorial candidacy in Ohio and professed substitution of the ancient silver apostle WARNER for himself, does not seem to have fooled the other Editors of the country a particle. They are evidently "onto" this sort of campaigning, and refuse to be gulled by it.

The Treasury receipts under the Dingley Law are steadily increasing. The receipts of its second month are greater than those of the second month under the Wilson Law, despite the fact that the Dingley Law found the country filled with foreign goods, while the Wilson Law found many million dollars' worth of goods waiting to enter and contribute to its earnings.

Some time since THE LEDGER stated that County Clerk COCHRAN, since his induction into office, had saved the taxpayers $100,000. The Free-silver oracle down street has been clamorous for a "bill of particulars"—in fact, its little belly has had such a big ache that it has been trying almost continuously for the figures.

Well, THE LEDGER hasn't yet had time to go all through the books, but today it will give one item as a starter. Here are a couple of bills rendered the taxpayers for printing election ballots:

MAYVILLE, Ky., Dec. 21st, 1896.

MAISON CITY.

To Messrs McCarthy, Dr.

Nov. 2. To printing ballots for Nov.

election, printed on both sides, numbered two per hundred, and bound, sample ballots, envelopes and slips for Judges. $101.50

Difference. $150.50

To be sure, a saving of $150.50 on a single job of printing is a small matter in the eyes of a concern that has grown fat and saucy on public pay; but THE LEDGER finds time to gather some more figures.

SHOT HIS ENEMY.

Deaf, Young's Head Beaten to a Jelly with a Hammer by Asa Stone.

CARLETON, Ky., Oct. 11.—Deaf Young and Asa Stone quarreled Saturday afternoon. Young's head was beaten to a jelly by a hammer in the hands of Stone, who several times during the fight slapped him in the face and called him a coward. When attacked the last time Young had aimed himself and shot Stone in the left breast, but not fatally. Young charges that Stone was the cause of his separating from his wife. Stone is still large. He is known as a courageous man, and Young's friends are determined to get him dead or alive. Marshal Humphrey and Sheriff Ratliff are on the hunt with an armed posse and have captured the man who left home with Young may live through the night. He never was known to quarrel with any one.

THE VOLUME

Of the "Commercial Relations of the United States,"

Embodying Annual Reports of the Consuls Upon the Trade Conditions

In Their Districts, Being Prepared for Publication as an Electric Railway in Hanover-The Swiss Watch Trade Decreasing-Bulletin Arrives.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The Bureau of foreign commerce of the state department is just now busily engaged in the preparation for publication of the volume known as "Commercial Relations of the United States," embodying annual reports from United States consuls in every country in the world upon the trade conditions in their respective districts. Within the past three years the quality and the value of this annual publication to the business interests of the country have improved in an astonishing degree, owing to careful selection of material, patient suggestion to consuls of information likely to be desired, and the addition of a compendious and thorough review prepared by the chief of the bureau.

A volume of considerable scope and tendentious that may be impartially drawn from the vast store of matter supplied by the consuls.

The forthcoming volume is of larger scope even than its predecessors and includes a chapter on the general trade tendencies that may be impartially drawn from the vast store of matter supplied by the consuls.

From Hanover comes an account of the installation of an electric railway for handling heavy freight, suggesting for the United States consuls in Germany, and talk of an opening for breakfast cereals. The consul at Barcelona reports that the Spanish market is affected by the Cuban war; upon the Spanish woman's aversion to the bicycle, and upon tariff and financial questions. From Rome comes a Domingo comes a report of railway development; of tariff changes, and of European and American credit systems.

The Swiss Watch Trade.

The depressing effects of American competition upon the Swiss watch trade is described by the consul at Geneva, who also tells of the preference for American bicycles and of the growing demand for American canned goods, California fruits and sole leather. The leather trade is also treated by the consul at Brics, who adds a chapter on the technical hints upon growing and curing for the English market. The imports that American goods are sent to the Swiss market are the subject of a chapter in the report of the consul at Nuremberg, who also tells of the growing demand for corn and barley, and the consul at Goteborg throws out some hints to American newspaper publishers to the means of obtaining a sale of their publications in the dominion.

Prince Botkin in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Prince Botkin, the Russian delegate to the international seal conference to be held in this city in a few weeks, has arrived here. He is the first of the foreign delegates to reach Washington.
